

Press Release

Contributed by Admin
Sunday, 02 November 2014
Last Updated Sunday, 02 November 2014

UNP promise to remove all legal barriers on SF within 72 hrs...

United National Party will do justice to former Army Commander and Democratic Party Leader Sarath Fonseka when a UNP president ascends to power. UNP General Secretary and Parliamentarian Tissa Aththanayake has said. He has made these remarks in a context where an understanding is building between the two parties where the next presidential election is concerned. "UNP will remove all legal barriers on Sarath Fonseka after the next President of Sri Lanka is elected" Attanayake said to the cheering crowds who gathered at Hype Park on Tuesday to take part in a rally organized by the main opposition party.

The Parliamentarian claimed that "while harbouring mass murderers such as Kumar Padmanadan (KP) who was a known firm supporter of the LTTE the government has even deprived Fonseka of his right to vote."

Democratic Party leader Sarath Fonseka has already shown his inclination to work with the UNP at forthcoming national level election.