

Press Release

Contributed by Admin
Friday, 28 November 2014
Last Updated Friday, 28 November 2014

Attanayake Strikes discordant note....

Ready to resign as UNP Gen. Sec !!!

At yesterday ceremony in UNP headquarters Srikotha to welcome Opposition Common Candidate Maithripala Sirisena took an unexpected turn with UNP General Secretary Tissa Attanayake Strikes discordant note. He said if one thought the party could make any headway without its color or symbol or candidate at an election one was sadly mistaken. A Visibly resentful Attanayake said the real UNPers had been shortchanged at all levels of the party and he too had not been spared. He was ready to give up the post of General Secretary any time he deciared. stressing that the interests of UNPers had to take precedence over everyone else's' He told sirisena that the UNP should not be taken lightly.